DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This 3 story building of running bond brick is one of a pair of houses (the other being 867 N. Howard St.) which have both been converted into shops. It is located in midblock, has 2 bays and a gently sloped roof.

Two single pane windows flank the central solid door of the shop front. The windows are over a low brick base and are topped by transoms which have been painted over. The door also have a transom, which has rounded top corners. There is a cornice above with widely spaced dentils.

The 6-over-6 double hung windows have stone sills, those on the 2nd floor are taller than the 3rd floor ones and have splayed brick lintils.

There is a chimney visible to the right.
